Squad Rally for Summer 2008!

Have you ever been discriminated against due to your large size, bad demeanor, ugly disposition or a figure with a similar name and look that got a better spider_poison rating than you? If so, we welcome you to join the BRUTE Squad Rally 2008! At BRUTE, we don't discriminate against points, size, smell or even the fact that you might chomp, stomp or otherwise maim small squad members on a regular basis. Besides, why should dragons get all the respect?

We meet every 3rd Wednesday in the basement of the Archkyrie Castle at Ticalla and Main, come join us!

The Core Squad:

KRUG — If not for the suggestion of animation, he would have been Shrek. Now he's getting called a troll when it is so clear he's an onion loving ogre.

VENOC WARLORD — The self proclaimed "Handbag King of Western Marr", he's a financial wizard with a massive labor force known as "Vipers R Us" or "House Slytherin". The only member to hold an actual title.

GUREI-ONI — Krug's cousin from the East, he has pledged his support to his less-fortunate family members in Valhalla, all the while pushing for monocular rights.

TOR KUL NA — Conjoined Siamese twins, one was exposed to gamma radiation. Joined groin to back of neck, the two make a formidable addition to the Squad. They also provide safari tours around southern Valhalla and have a successful cover-modeling career.

"Dum Dum" DUMUTEF — The real troll (direct from under the bridge), that got all those goat horns stuck in his face. He comes from a fairly large family where his looks are fairly "common".

GRIMNAK — This poor dino suffers while some trash-talking orc takes his name. He's not getting the love, but he's doing all the real work. A perfect example of why the squad exists.

MAJOR Q10 — The "little" brother of Major Q9, he's gotten passed over by the family business one too many times, mostly because he is the least "robot looking" of his family. But the ladies still love him, with the nickname "Major Q-T".

ME "Burpsa" BURQ SA — The squad has been trying to help this illegal alien get his green card for years. Plus the ladies say he's hung on his like a horse and carries a big boom stick.

MARCU "Crybaby" ESENWEIN — A face only a mother could ... okay, nobody loves this guy and he doesn't love anybody either. He's been sent for anger management courses over and over, but he keeps draining the life coaches!

Reserve Members:

BRUNAK — Krug's half-brother (same father, different mother) is a young demonic centaur colt whose always cranky; most likely the result of spending every day with a hot foot!

KHOSUMET — This "Dark Lord" is the liaison from "Children of the Night", a group dedicated to proving that Sci Fi Channel's Horror Movie Marathon's are not historically accurate. He runs a nudist colony for the extremely hairy.

JOTUN — "Ho ho ho, green pissed off giant!" He's got a bad rep as a wild swinger, scaring away most potential dates. His largest income source is from substituting as a crane, but he tends to drop his loads.

KHEE MO SHI — When Burpsa brought her to a squad meeting the first time, the first thing Dum Dum said was "Wow, the b*tch is back." He hasn't been able to close his mouth fully or eat solid food ever since.
